Three Articles to Read

Confirm Kavanaugh

The Senate should elevate Judge Brett Kavanaugh to the United States Supreme Court. Thursday's hearing was at times compelling, at times emotional, and at times frustrating. At no point, however, was it transformational. When the day started, there was no corroborating evidence behind any of the charges leveled against Kavanaugh. That remains the case now. Confirm Brett Kavanaugh

Thursday's Senate hearing on Brett Kavanaugh's Supreme Court nomination was an embarrassment that should have never happened. Judge Kavanaugh was right to call the confirmation process a "disgrace" in his passionate self-defense, and whatever one thinks of Christine Blasey Ford's assault accusation, she offered no corroboration or new supporting evidence <https://www.wsj.com/articles/confirm-brett-kavanaugh-1538089143>

Time To Confirm Kavanaugh

President Trump hit exactly the right note after today's Senate hearing on his nomination of Judge Kavanaugh to the Supreme Court. The judge, the president tweeted, "showed America exactly why I nominated him." He called the judge's testimony "powerful, honest, and riveting" and denounced the Democrats' "search and destroy" strategy as "disgraceful." <https://www.nysun.com/editorials/time-to-confirm-kavanaugh/90403/>
